

REGISTRATION OF REAL ESTATE CONTINUING EDUCATION PROVIDERS

Instructions and Application

- . A Continuing Education Provider shall be responsible for the development and administration of the course offerings. An application shall be made to the Real Estate Commission ("Commission") at least 45 days prior to the day of the first anticipated course offering.
- . Each provider must be registered with the Commission prior to offering any continuing education course. Each registration will expire on December 31 of every even-numbered year. Your registration automatically terminates on the expiration date unless you renew your registration by December 31. Registration must be renewed biennially. Although you are responsible for renewing your registration, registration renewal forms will be mailed to you as a courtesy. If you do not receive the courtesy registration renewal forms at least 30 days prior to expiration, contact the Real Estate Branch immediately.
- . Review Hawaii Administrative Rules, Chapter 99, SUBCHAPTER 9 CONTINUING EDUCATION (attached). Continuing Education ("CE") providers must comply with all rules as outlined in this chapter.
- . The Continuing Education Provider's owner or administrator is responsible for reporting and disclosing all investigations, judgments and penalties as required by Chapter 436B, Hawaii Revised Statutes ("HRS").
- . Complete applications will be reviewed and considered by the Commission. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Please allow 45 days for processing.

UNTIL RECEIPT OF WRITTEN NOTIFICATION OF APPROVAL FROM THE REAL ESTATE COMMISSION, NO PROVIDER SHALL ADVERTISE, SCHEDULE CLASSES, ACCEPT APPLICATIONS OR TUITION FEES FROM PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS, OR HOLD CLASSES.

Instructions for "Yes" Answers on Section 13 of the Application for Continuing Education Provider Registration

- A. The following documents must be provided at the time you apply for registration. Applications will not be considered without this material.

Question a1)

If you have applied for, been granted, or held a real estate license in Hawaii or any other jurisdiction, list the jurisdiction, license type, and license number in the space provided. Attach a separate page if more space is required.

Questions a2, a3, a4, and a5)

These questions refer to complaints, charges of unlicensed activity, or pending disciplinary actions for any profession, occupation, or license, both real estate and those other than real estate. If your answer is "yes" to one or more of these questions, read paragraph B below, and you must submit the following:

- i. A statement by you explaining the circumstances;
- ii. Copies of any documents from the agency, including final orders, petitions, findings of fact and conclusions of law, and any other relevant documents;
- iii. A resume of any employment, business activities, and education since the date of the action; and,
- iv. You may also include statements from employers, business associates, clients, and others who can attest to your reputation for or record of competency, honesty, truthfulness, financial integrity, and fair dealing.

Question b)

If your application indicates a criminal conviction, read paragraph B below, and you must submit the following:

- i. A statement by you explaining the circumstances leading to the conviction and detailing all activities since the conviction, including employment and business involvements. Include job title, period of employment, employer's name, description of duties, training attended, and educational courses attended;
- ii. A copy of the court order, verdict, and terms of sentence;
- iii. If applicable, a copy of the terms of probation and/or parole and a statement from your probation or parole officer as to your reputation for or record of competency, honesty, truthfulness, financial integrity, and fair dealing; and,
- iv. Statements from employers, business associates, clients, and others who can attest to your business dealings since the conviction, including a statement as to your reputation for or record of competency, honesty, truthfulness, financial integrity, and fair dealing.

Question c)

If you have any pending lawsuits, unpaid judgments, outstanding tax obligation, or any other type of involuntary liens against you, read paragraph B below, and you must submit the following:

- i. A statement by you explaining the circumstances and current status, and if no payment of payment arrangement has been made, the reason;
- ii. A resume of employment and business activities; and,
- iii. Copies of the court complaint, judgment, documentation of payment arrangements, lien documents, records of any payments, and other relevant documents.

- B. If your answer to questions a2), a3), a4), a5), b), or c) is "yes", your application will be reviewed at a monthly Real Estate Commission meeting if you have provided all applicable information and documents as described above. The Commission will not review incomplete applications. If you wish to present oral testimony at the meeting, submit a written request with your application. A courtesy notice with information on the date, time, and location of the meeting will be sent to you.

STATEMENT OF ETHICAL TEACHING PRACTICES

Continuing Education Instructor

I, _____, as a continuing education instructor for _____, do hereby promise, attest to, and affirm that I shall adhere to the highest standards of ethical practices in the performance of my instructional duties including but not limited to:

1. Teaching only course subjects, the command knowledge of which I have acquired either by training, experience or education or by combinations thereof, "command knowledge of" as defined in §16-99-104(g), Hawaii Administrative Rules, Real Estate Brokers and Salespersons;
2. Taking all reasonable steps to update the continuing education course materials and information;
3. Giving out, to the best of my knowledge and belief, current and accurate course information and materials;
4. Conducting fair and reasonable discussions, presenting alternative viewpoints, and identifying clearly an instructor's opinion of any controversial course issues within the time allotted to the topic;
5. Advising students that each should research and update any course information and materials prior to using the course information and materials in the practice of real estate;
6. Taking reasonable steps to prevent the unlicensed, unauthorized and unintended practice of any licensed profession, for example, the unlicensed practice of giving legal, accounting, or tax advise;
7. Using reasonable efforts to keep current with the state of the art teaching techniques and skills as it relates to the teaching of continuing education to adult learners;
8. Informing students prior to the start of class what the students can expect to learn from the course;
9. Taking reasonable steps to evaluate whether indeed the students have learned what I taught;
10. Refraining from limiting course instructions to exclusively train students to pass a course exam where one is given;
11. Obtaining appropriate consents and permissions before using copyrighted or patented instructional materials, products or presentations;
12. Taking reasonable steps to maintain appropriate classroom decorum and language conducive to academic learning, inquiry and research;

13. Taking necessary steps to ensure that the Real Estate Commission receives all anticipated material changes to the course objectives, curriculum, materials and information thirty days prior to the anticipated change; except changes reflecting new federal and state legislation and administrative agency rules;
14. Refraining from active solicitation and advertising for, during any scheduled continuing education class, other businesses and products which the instructor owns or has any direct or indirect interest in; "active solicitation and advertising for" excludes a business, professional or product presentation to students listing the instructor's expertise, work experience, publications, and affiliations as part of an introductory resume;
15. Performing diligently all other duties and responsibilities required of a continuing education instructor as set forth in Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 467 and Commission rules embodied in Hawaii Administrative Rules, Chapter 99, "Real Estate Brokers and Salespersons."

As a continuing education instructor, I acknowledge that failure to conform to the standards, duties and responsibilities enumerated and referred to above may be grounds for loss of certification as an instructor.

As the administrator of the continuing education provider named above, I acknowledge and agree that my omission of, intentional or negligent conduct and acts which aid and abet the continuing education instructor signing below to perform otherwise as the instructor has promised, attested to and affirm, and adhere to but not limited to herein, may be grounds for loss of the continuing education provider's registration.

PRELICENSE REAL ESTATE SCHOOL AND CONTINUING EDUCATION PROVIDER

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

THAT WE, _____
of the County of _____, State of Hawaii, as Principal, and
_____, as Surety, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Hawaii, in the full and just sum of _____ ($_____) lawful money of the United States of America, for the just and full payment of which we hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, and our respective heirs, executors and administrators, and successors.

THE CONDITION OF THIS OBLIGATION IS SUCH, that

WHEREAS, the Principal desires to obtain, or to renew, a certificate or certificates of registration to offer real estate prelicense courses, or real estate continuing education courses, or both, under and pursuant to Section 467-25.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and to the provisions of Chapter 99, Title 16, Hawaii Administrative Rules, appertaining thereto;

NOW, THEREFORE, if such certificate or certificates shall be issued and if the above bounden
Principal shall fully and faithfully comply with the provisions of the statute hereinabove mentioned and the Rules of the Real Estate Commission, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise, it shall be and remain in full force and effect;

AND every person suffering loss or damage because of failure of the Principal to fully and faithfully comply with said statute or said Rules or because of failure of the Principal to fully and faithfully provide instruction and training as represented by said Principal or required by said statute or Rules, may sue the Surety for the recovery of any loss or damage and for the proportionate recovery of tuition, fees and other charges paid in advance as provided in said statute or Rules.

IT IS HEREBY stipulated and agreed that suit on this bond may be brought before a court of competent jurisdiction without a jury.

AND, this bond shall remain in full force and effect and shall run concurrently with the respective certificate period or periods and for any renewals thereof, unless terminated, cancelled, or not renewed by the Surety. Such termination, cancellation, or non-renewal shall not be effective, however, unless written notice thereof is delivered by the Surety to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of termination, cancellation, or non-renewal.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the said Principal and the said Surety, have hereunto set our hands and seals this _____ day of _____, 19____.

CONSENT

The Real Estate Commission may use the following methods to evaluate the prelicense education / continuing education programs and to monitor compliance with prelicense education / continuing education rules.

1. Evaluations. The Commission may require that participant evaluation forms, provided by the Commission, be distributed to participants for purposes of evaluating the school / provider, instructor, and course. Schools / Providers will be responsible for obtaining, distributing, collecting, and returning the forms.
2. Drop-In Monitoring. Representatives of the Commission may attend courses on a drop-in basis. They will not register and no fees or reimbursements will be involved.
3. Investigative Monitoring. Representatives of the Commission may attend courses as a regular participant for the purpose of determining if the courses are being presented under statute, regulation, and Commission requirements. These representatives will not identify themselves as Commission representatives and will pay the required fees.
4. The Commission may, from time to time, request information regarding course offerings, attendance, examinations, and record keeping.

The undersigned acknowledges receipt and understanding of the procedures outlined above which relate to all approved prelicense education / continuing education course offerings.

I consent to inspection or monitoring by representatives of the Real Estate Commission. I agree to report any material changes, including addition of or substitution of instructors in the information submitted at least 30 days prior to proposed use. I agree to retain complete records for at least three years from the date of each course offering.
